STONETOWN had inside speed to lead into the turn, was pressured into the stretch, went head and head to the wire and proved very game. MARCO BE GOOD close up and tracking early, pressed outside into the stretch, dueled from there to the wire and then missed in a solid try. NEIL THE KNIFE hit the gate at the break, was off the rail and in touch on the turn then came home from there with a mild bid to nail the show. ANOTHER ASCOT in touch and saving ground on the turn, was outfinished in the drive. ZARROC was off the pace and not a factor while bidding off the rail. CHEMISTRY CLASS had an inside trip and no serious bid.
