

Mike Dimoff's TIP SHEET

Sunday, July 22, 2012

RACE 1

TITANIUM JANE - That was some kind of 1st impression. She does not give me the best numbers, however the scary thing is I think she will stretch out and like it as much as she did going 1 turn.

SKATING HOME - Not as good a first impression as my top pick when looking back to her May start but she gives me top numbers and should have a fitness edge that she may not have had in her May debut.

WITH ALL DILIGENCE - This is a mare who offers some value and has had some excuses in her past. With a clean trip and a fast track she can pay a dividend.

RACE 2

DULCIE - I'm not concerned too much. The barn gets them ready off a layoff at 19%. Hoping the class relief and a bit of a price comes through, although a horse running two turns making the first start carries its risks.

IKABELLA - I expect this well bred runner can improve with a start under the belt.

SOUTH BEACH ANNA - Concerned she won't want to run this far so I'm taking a fourth horse as well.

I'LL BE HOME SOON - No chance from the 8 path last trip. Forget it and move on. A win candidate.

RACE 3

SOY SAUCE - Pass the wasabi please and line up the fish candy.

WINNING CHARM - A winner on this grass course is encouraging and the way he won last start has me feeling pretty good although it won't be easy to defeat my top choice.

BILL'S THRILL - Also ran well in recent race and did the dirty work for others. Must avoid a speed duel to see best result.

RACE 4

CASTLE CLOSE - This runner has limited starts and is improving with every one. He has had more than his share of outside draws and should benefit from hole #2. The value is here as you should get a fair price.

PAY THE BAND - Was starting to close well late in his last event but he was not asked to beat much as a 3:1 shot in that event. Mixed feelings but would not be surprised to see him win.

BOREOUS - Dirt may be the best thing for him and I also like that he's running a sprint again. Looks like two turns is too much.

RACE 5

CLARKSONCHARM - I like his race in the city and I liked the way he ran in the battle of the breeds. I think I will like his price too.

DOCTOR JACK - He's one of the ones based on the way he won that race. Wow.

RUMBLE RUCKUS - He was saved by the line in his last and there is enough speed to hurt him in this event, not to mention they're asking him for another 1/2 furlong.

RACE 6

CALM NIGHT - There appears to be little concern that dirt won't be to his liking and he will undoubtedly find this an easier spot to build confidence. I like him.

DON'T SEND A BOY - He was on a slow pace and things fell way too easy for him in his latest.

LETAPROHAVEAGO - This is a horse I like to follow. He's fresh in his third start or is he? Quick come back... no??

RACE 7

NAVIESBEST - Went much too quick in her recent race. New rider offers optimism for at least an experiment gone bad.

YOU'VE BEEN PLAYED - Can hang near the pace and hang around for more.

WHAT SAY YOU - Best numbers but the limited running time this year has me taking a watch and see approach.

RACE 8

PUT IT ON HOLD - This guy is a decent animal and he runs well on turf. If he runs today as he did "yesterday" he will be a tough turf runner to defeat.

ACCOMPLICE - Multiple winner on the grass and I love that they show confidence moving him up and I LOVE that they are running 7/8. Watch out.

NORTHOFFIFTY - Obviously he's a big threat to win. Look at his last two.

Most Likely - SOY SAUCE (3rd)
Upset Special - I'LL BE HOME SOON (2nd)