Office:

After receiving a report July 14 regarding an incident dated July 13, 2020, Trainer Joseph Humber was issued a monetary penalty of $200 for conduct disrespectful by word or action towards an official while they were performing their duties.

Race 6 – The Rise Jim Stakes – was officially cancelled at 11:46 am. All the horses were on the same van arriving from Finger Lakes, New York and had issues crossing the border. Due to the border problem, they were unable arrive on the grounds to receive the Lasix administration at the appointed time of 11:45.

Film Reviews:

Races:

Race 1 – Clear

Race 2 – Clear

Race 3 – Jockey Claim of Foul by Juan Crawford aboard #3 “Moon Rover” against Melanie Pinto aboard #5 "Perfect Mine" for interference around the far turn. Juan said she was pressing me to the fence and didn't need to do that, I'm on a big horse and she just squeezed me. Melanie said she was not sure what Juan is talking about, had plenty of horse and kept her position. Video did not support Juan's case and the claim of foul was disallowed. Second claim of foul by Sunny Singh aboard #6 "New York Mint" against Juan Crawford aboard #3 "Moon Rover" for interference at the top of the stretch. Sunny said he came in and got us at the top of the stretch, it was dangerous. Juan said his horse changed leads and dropped in with him but grabbed as quickly as possible. Asked Sunny why he was claiming foul when he was second last and he beat Juan who was last. He explained he wanted us to look at it because it was dangerous. We relayed it was a frivolous claim of foul. Monetary penalty for Sunny Singh $100.00
